

Year 3 have been under the tables experiencing what it is like to be a real cave painter.

In History, we created freeze frames using real life Stone Age objects.

In Science, we have been making and measuring shadows.

